BANGOR WHIG.

MONDAY, MAY 31, 1841.

☞ The leaders of the opposition dont relish it very well that the new democratic administration of the general government has come in supported at the first session of Congress by a larger majority than either Gen Jackson or Van Buren had during their administrations Gen Jackson had to work hard for a long time to get the Senate, but now Senate and House are strong in favor of the people's measures fresh from the people who are wide awake for reform, they will not disappoint their expectations

☞ The whigs in the New York Legislature, happened to get into an accidental minority, by the absence of some, the sickness of others and the desertion of a pretended whig to the ranks of the opposition The locos were instantly ripe for mischief in defeating the law for the registration of voters in the cities of that State, and limiting elections to one day The black flag of locofocoism is ready to be run up at any moment that an occasion occurs, in perfect defiance of the will of the people, who the leaders pretend are "insane" "deluded" and under the influence of the "hard cider current"

☞ The Washington Temperance Society held a second public meeting at the City Hall, on Saturday evening last. The house was crowded Addresses were made by Mr Place of Augusta, and by Mr Davis the Secretary of the society Mr Davis did not intend to make a speech, but unconsciously made one of the best speeches we have listened to for a long time The society has been very successful and is constantly increasing. Our hearts are with them in their noble enterprise Several members of the society carry in their improved appearance an eloquent argument in favor of reform We are anxious to hear remarks from other members of the society, as we feel confident they will agree with Mr Davis, that there is imminent danger to the moderate drinker the steps from which to those of drunkenness, are easy and almost imperceptible

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE The N York Commercial of Friday, says that the Post Master General will send off an express with the President's Message, immediately after the reading of it shall have commenced in the House If the House should be organized on Monday, the Message will be sent to Congress on Tuesday, at twelve o'clock, and conveyed to New York in TEN HOURS.

☞ The steamship Great Western, on her last trip to New York, encountered vast fields of ice The captain stated that the ice extended more than one hundred miles At one point, when she came upon the ice, in lat 48, 55, the bay or rather neck, in which she found herself, was so narrow that she could not turn, and was obliged to back out, five miles

☞ The Augusta Washington Temperance Society propose to publish a weekly paper devoted to the great objects of the society, at one dollar a year in advance Wm M Doe and B. F Chandler are announced as editors.

Died Mrs Hannah Carleton, a respectable lady, aged 63, a native of Charlestown, Mass, and entirely blind, was killed on Tuesday in New York, where she resided, by her son, William, who cut her throat with a razor in a fit of insanity

☞ We learn that a portion of about sixty feet of the Dam at the Union Mills, Orono, has been removed, probably by undermining as it was built of stone and gravel. About thirty saws by this disaster, are stopped from running the present season, at least until after the summer drought. The mills were principally owned by N. Treat, Esq and were generally leased his loss will be heavy

The following extract from an article in the last number of the "Baltimore Religious Magazine," by the Rev R. J. Breckinridge, on the occasion of President HARRISON's death, is as instructive as it is eloquent The writer alludes to the political revolution of 1840 and the relations which Gen Harrison bore to it

The American people saw that the times were totally out of joint. They saw that the bonds of public and private morality were loosened They saw that honesty, whether of opinion or practice, was well nigh banished from amongst political parties They saw that trustworthiness, whether to perform service, to keep a treasure, or to represent opinions were utterly out of date They wanted, as the first and chiefest thing, an honest man; and they thought, whether truly or falsely, let posterity decide they thought, they had found in HARRISON, an honest man This was the secret of that confidence, like an immoveable rock, which the more the man was traduced the more it caused him to grow into the very hearts of the people They firmly believed that their affairs required an honest man, and that they had found him And never was a confidence however mistaken any may suppose it to have been, more honorable in its motive, to him who inspired it, or more ennobling to those who conceived it.

This was the secret of the national confidence; but there was superadded a pervading national sentiment which mere integrity is not sufficient to inspire It was indeed a striking sight to see in times like these, a man who in all trusts, and under every variety of circumstance, was supposed to have preserved unsullied honesty But the people saw, or fancied they saw, more They thought they saw a man, who, through a long life of most arduous and responsible public service and amid many and sometimes almost irresponsible public trusts, had never we will not say abused but had never even used the legitimate powers and opportunities he had so constantly enjoyed to promote himself or to injure any human being A man, who had long and faithfully served his country in utter forgetfulness of his own interests, and of what is harder to forget, his own passions, and whom that country had not adequately rewarded - had not sufficiently loved had not properly cherished This idea took possession of the national mind, and with a feeling no how resembling a cold selection for office, but with an impassioned and vehement burst of national affection and almost romantic devotedness, the people sought this poor, private, and aged man, with their loud and ardent cry and led him forth, not so much into supreme trust, as by it to that sepulchre around which a nation mourns

A greater, a better, or a purer political lesson was never taught What a lesson to the nations of the earth to behold a man, without of fice and the power, without money, without patronage, without soldiers, without ships, to behold a man thus circumstanced, come without shedding one drop of blood, or violating any law, from his humble and retired abode on the outskirts of civilization, and quietly and without resistance, take possession of the government of one of the greatest and most enlightened nations of the earth! Glorious thrice glorious commentary on the nature of our institutions and the spirit of our people! What a lesson for our own public men to ponder, is furnished by the national impulse which brought this simple man to supreme authority, and by the qualities and conduct which inspired such public gratitude and admiration! What precious proofs, that the nation means to act, not only well, but nobly, so that even they who suppose the people are deceived, are still obliged to honor them, and they who say that the parties and their leaders as such, are to a deplorable extent corrupt, are obliged to admit, that the mass of our people of all parties, love their country and are worthy of their liberties!

☞ The Salem Register speaking of the temperance meeting, recently held on board the Massachusetts steamboat in the Sound when Mr Henfield of Salem, addressed the audience with a thrilling effect, says.

We have known Mr H and his whole history, from childhood, and having often heard from his own lips the story of his struggles to save himself from ruin, we can well conceive of the thrilling effect his touching tale must have had on his auditors in the steamboat His case is the most remarkable of the kind on record He knows by experience every stage of the drunkard's progress, he has saved himself, and he is willing to save others and the moral he invariably attempt to inculcate is 'there is no safety but in total abstinence' - We know of no man better calculated to further the temperance reform than Mr. H. and as he has always been ready to aid in this great work, we trust he will consent, on all suitable occasions when in his power, to appear before the public and tell them with his own lips, the story of his struggles and of his complete success

It ought to be mentioned that Mr Henfield's reformation is by no means recent. He accomplished it himself, by his own strength of mind, long before the great movements in this cause were made It is now twenty six years since a drop of ardent spirit passed his lips, and upwards of twenty years since he has tasted any drink in the least intoxicating We need not say that he is one of our most respectable citizens for no person ever heard his story without a deep feeling of involuntary respect for the man who has proved that he possesses such an entire control over himself, after the raging passion for strong drink had once taken root It may also encourage those who are in the situation in which he once was, to know that Mr H, since his reformation, by his industry, shrewdness, and correctness, has acquired a fortune by no means contemptable, and is now a wealthy man

A BLUNT SOLDIER Ever since Jack Falstaff commanded his company with but two shirts between them, we believe it has been the fashion to consider bluntness of manner the peculiar property of the Soldier, and that like Othello, he was to be "rude of speech" This perhaps was the freak of by-gone times, and destined to remain amid the love of the past, if a late event had not revived it, in all its original beauty The joke is a good one if true, and if not, only shows how we have been gulled by some waggish friend

On Wild Cat's interview with Major Childs, at Fort Pierce, the other day, after exhibiting the consequence in several outbreaks of impudence, he saw an iron pot which he recognized as once having belonged to him. Pursuing his strain of untutored eloquence, "You call yourself a warrior," said he, "and yet you took that pot from an old woman If it had been a man, and taken in fair fight it would have been your pot, but you frightened the squaw and captured the pot That was not a warrior's act I would as soon take baby linen from a piccaniny, as a pot from a squaw. But I am a warrior and want my pot" The gallant Major could not stand before the eloquence of the Indian; the pot was his but it struck him as a thing singular; it [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

Adams's Venuis Water.

THE TRUE REMEDY! THE SOVEREIGN RESTORATIVE!! THE GRAND PRODUCER!!!

Palma, non sine pulvere.

WHEN in the course of human events it becomes necessary for an individual in private life to present his claims before a discriminating public, in order to elicit a share of their patronage, a decent respect for himself requires that he should declare the causes which impel him to this course.

I hold this truth to be self-evident, that all men are not, in all respects, equal. This may be deemed rather heretical, at first thought, but it is even so. Look at the man whose head is bald! is he equal to the man whose head is covered with a superabundance of dark, glossy hair? Look at the man, the sides of whose face, and the brows of whose eyes, are as smooth as the cheek of an infant! is he equal to the man who can boast those EXQUISITE ornaments, black curling whiskers, and beautiful eyebrows of the same hue? "By no means!" exclaims the maiden with the laughing eye, "No indeed!" exclaims the more staid matron, and "No sir," exclaims the exquisite, with an emphasis that at once silences all cavil.

Now for the purpose of remedying this inequality, and that the appearance and happiness of all men, may, to a greater extent, be made to conform to the great principle promulgated in the celebrated American "Declaration of Independence," that all men were created free and equal, I, Thomas D. Adams, of Bangor, Maine, Hair Dresser, do solemnly publish and declare that after FOURTEEN YEARS of study ten of which have been years of immense labor and difficulty, I have discovered the only true remedy against the loss, the sovereign restorative in case of a deficiency, and the grand producer of that most beautiful ornament of "the human form divine," the hair! And, notwithstanding the puffs, ordinary and extraordinary, which have crowded our newspapers for years past, of Greases, Oils, Tonics and Nostrums, for improving the hair, I am prepared to prove by living witnesses and by actual demonstration, that not one of them will compete with this which I now offer to the public.

That it may be known that this Venuis Water is an invaluable article, I will state that in the first years of my labors upon it, its application to the head for two consecutive seasons, was necessary in order to establish a good growth of hair, but now only one season is required, so successful have been my improvements upon it!! And I have the proud satisfaction of knowing that in the City of Bangor alone, two hundred and sixty six heads which were once bald, can, by the heavy growth of hair upon them, bear witness to the wonderful effects which this Venuis Water has produced within eighteen months!

I will add a few, of the certificates almost innumerable, which have been given me by individuals who have derived benefit from this Water. And, after reading them, if any one doubts its complete efficacy, if he will call upon me, I think I can convince him, to his entire satisfaction, that what I represent is truth; and that, as the Latin motto at the head of this notice declares, "I have won the palm, but not without labor."

THOMAS D ADAMS.

I hereby certify that for the last two or three years my head has been bald, and that during that period, I have used a great number of applications recommended for their efficacy in restoring the hair, from which I have never received any benefit, some even having proved injurious, until the past summer, I made use of Thomas D Adams' Venuis Water, which has entirely exceeded my expectations, and covered my head with a strong growth of hair. HANNAH PALMER.
Bangor, May 15, 1841.

This may certify that the hair upon the top of my head, being nearly gone and the remainder fast dropping off daily, I was induced by Mr. T. D. Adams, to try his Venuis Water, and during the last year he has made frequent applications of it to my head. I have now a considerable growth of new hair, produced, as I suppose, by the use of his remedy. E. HARRIS.
Bangor, Feb. 3, 1841.

This may certify that I called on Mr. T. D. Adams in May, 1836, I used his Venuis Water for three months and it has produced as much hair as I wish to have on my head.
Bangor, Sept. 1837. NANCY SMITH.

This may certify that my head was entirely bald, and by the use of T. D. Adams' Venuis Water for three months my hair has been restored.
Bangor, Feb. 15, 1841. CALEB B. HOLMES

I have used Mr. Adams's Venuis Water, for the growth of the hair for about six months, and am happy to say that it has answered every purpose in producing a good head of hair, and prevent the hair from coming out by combing.
Bangor, Feb. 8, 1841. MARY JONES.

This may certify that for the last six months I have used Adams' Venuis Water, and have the satisfaction to say that the top of my head which for a long time was nearly entirely bald, is now covered with a good growth of hair.
Bangor, Feb. 12, 1841. WM. FROST.

This may certify that for the last twenty years my head has been bald, but now covered with a good growth of hair, since I used the Venuis Water for four months.
Bangor, Feb. 16, 1841. E. R. WARREN.

This certifies that I have used a preparation made by Mr. Thos. D Adams of this city, to restore hair to the head, after it had fallen off, and having derived much benefit from it, I would cheerfully recommend its use to others.
Bangor, Feb. 16, 1841. A. HOUTON.

The Venuis Water is for sale by the proprietor at his rooms over the Post Office, Bangor, City. March 11 T. D. ADAMS.

Important Caution.

It is a singular fact and one much to be regretted, that valuable medicines, as soon as they become popular, and have received the test and approval of a discriminating public, are sure to be counterfeited, and thus a bad and spurious article is immediately palmed upon the unsuspecting as the genuine. This has been notoriously the case with all popular tried and truly valuable medicines for years past, and will probably continue to be the case for years to come.

The base and contemptible counterfeiter in this way means to take advantage of all the efforts and the expense incurred by the proprietors of the genuine article to get their medicines into use and deserved popularity. It is therefore not less the duty than it contributes to the safety of every honest individual in the community, to expose, frown down, and forever after distrust all heartless ingrates, who thus irresponsibly trifle with health and life.

THEREFORE TAKE NOTICE.

There is a person by the name of J. B. ROCHEFORT, now engaged in selling a Pill done up in boxes in exact and perfect imitation of the genuine INDIAN VEGETABLE PILLS, with the omission of only one word on the boxes viz. WRIGHT. The Pills sold by this Rochefort are evidently intended as a fraud and imposition upon the community or they would not have been done up in such exact imitation of the genuine. This person is tall and blustering with a great Theatrical swagger. He was recently known as a very poor player in Baltimore, under the musical cognomen of Jim Brown, and is about twenty five years of age. It is almost beyond a doubt that he is supplied with the Pills from a Druggist firm in this city, who have been heretofore notoriously connected with counterfeit medicines. As soon as proof is obtained the fountain head of this nefarious business will be exposed, that the community may shun them as they would a serpent.

IN THE MEAN TIME THE PUBLIC ARE CAUTIONED

against buying WRIGHT'S Indian Vegetable Pills of any one who does not exhibit a certificate of agency signed by the agent for the New England States, and bearing date since January, 1840. Also take particular notice that the following wording is on the Boxes

WRIGHT'S Indian Vegetable Pills (Improved Purgative) of the North American College of Health.

THE INDIAN VEGETABLE PILLS are a certain cure for disease in its every variety of form, because they thoroughly cleanse the stomach and bowels, induce a proper discharge by the lungs, skin and kidneys, and stimulate the blood to purify itself. In other words they open all the natural drains, and leave NATURE (THE GRAND PHYSICIAN) to drive disease from the body. The above outlets, or drains, are the common sewers of the body, through which all morbid and corrupt humors (the cause of disease) are carried off and so long as they are all kept open, and discharge freely their allotted portions of impurity, the body will continue in health; but when from eating improper food, breathing impure air, sudden transitions from heat to cold, over exertion, or any other cause, the bowels become costive, the pores of the skin become closed or the kidneys fail to perform their functions properly, the impurities which should be drained from the body by those outlets will be retained, and continue to accumulate until the body becomes literally loaded with disease.

The above pills may be taken at all times and under all circumstances, with perfect safety. They suit all complaints and all ages, and are as natural to the human constitution as food, consequently they can never injure even the most delicate. Like our food they are digestible; therefore they enter into the circulation, and impart an energy to the blood which enables it to flow with freedom quite to the extremities, and consequently to keep the pores of the skin open. They are true and perfect purifiers of the blood; because they drain all corrupt humors from that life giving fluid. They impart strength and vigor to the whole system, and their effects are always beneficial; because they only remove those humors which are opposed to health. They aid and improve digestion, and sound sleep follows their use; because they cleanse the stomach and bowels of their slimy humors which not only irritate and excite the nervous system, but paralyze and weaken the digestive organs. In short they possess all the good properties that can be claimed for any medicine; and what is very remarkable, it is utterly impossible to use them without benefit.

Price 25 cents per Box, with full Directions.

☞ Office and General Depot for the New England States, No 198 TREMONT STREET, near Court street, Boston.

☞ The Regular appointed Agents can receive their supplies of the above popular Pills, as heretofore, from the ONLY OFFICE and GENERAL DEPOT for the New England States, 198 Tremont street Boston.

☞ Pedlers or travelling Agents are not allowed to sell the Genuine Indian Vegetable Pills; therefore never purchase from them, for if you do you will be sure to obtain a DANGEROUS and Counterfeit article.

DR. SEARS' UNIVERSAL SANGUINARIAN OR BLOOD ROOT PILLS.

THE pretence that any medicine is nearly an "infallible cure" for all diseases "that flesh is heir to," whatever their character, is a flagrant imposition upon the public confidence, and a most wicked outrage upon the generous sympathy that suffering humanity justly demands of us. Yet the very frequency and boldness of these impious frauds so eminently cruel to the unfortunate, furnish solid ground for presenting the public a remedy that may be intelligently appreciated and relied upon. That powerful medicinal agent, the Blood Root, is the basis of the Universal Sanguinarian Pills, and all the laurels are drawn from the vegetable kingdom the grand source of support to animal existence.

But in the combination, the different ingredients are so blended and modified as to give the compound a remarkable advantage over the simples, and it is believed over all other medicines. When it is considered that nearly all diseases, chronic and acute, are connected with a disordered action of the stomach and bowels, and that in most instances, this is superinduced by disorder of the Bile, or Gall, which is the natural purgative of the system, and when it is farther considered that these Pills act with singular power upon these many organs, and through them upon the blood and entire physical economy, sober reason must justify the assertion, that this valuable discovery furnishes a remedy of rare efficiency in all curable cases of disease; and this deduction of reason is abundantly corroborated by experience. This medicine harmonizes with the laws of life, inspires and strengthens nature, and works its wonders, by generously cheering her on to a triumphant conflict with the obtrusive agents of disease. It is offered for general use, and as a safe and most valuable family medicine. Safe, not because it does nothing, (like many contemptible nostrums of newspaper celebrity, which by occupying the place of efficient remedies, are often fatal) but safe, because it aids and co-operates with nature, instead of setting her aside and violently attempting to perform her work by dangerous foreign agency.

HAEMORRHOIDS,
NO CURE NO PAY!

HAYS' LINIMENT.

NO FICTION. This extraordinary chemical composition, the result of science, and the invention of a celebrated medical man, the introduction of which to the public was invented with the solemnity of a death-bed bequest, has since gained a reputation unparalleled, fully sustaining the correctness of the lamented Dr. Gridley's last confession, that "he dared not die without giving to posterity the benefit of his knowledge on this subject," and he therefore bequeathed to his friend and attendant, Solomon Hays, the secret of his discovery.

It is now used in the principal hospitals, and the private practice in our country, first and most certainly for the cure of the Piles, and also so extensively and effectually as to baffle credulity, unless where its effects are witnessed. Externally in the following complaints:

For Dropsy Creating extraordinary absorption at once.
All Swellings Reducing them in a few hours.
Rheumatism Acute or Cronic, giving quick ease.
Sore Throat By cancers, ulcers or colds.
Croup and Whooping Cough. Externally, and over the chest.
All Bruises, Sprains and Burns curing in a few hours
Sores and Ulcers Whether fresh or long standing, and fever sores

Its operations upon adults and children in reducing rheumatic swellings, and loosening coughs and tightness of the chest by relaxation of the parts, has been surprising beyond conception. The common remark of those who have used it in the Piles, is, "It is like a charm."

THE PILLS. The price $1 is refunded to any person who will use a bottle of Hays' Liniment for the Piles and return the empty bottle, without being cured. These are the positive orders of the proprietor to the agents; and out of many thousands sold, not one has been unsuccessful

We might insert certificates to any length, but prefer that those who sell the article should exhibit the original to purchasers.

LOOK OUT. Some swindlers have counterfeited this article, and put it up with various devices. Do not be imposed upon. One thing only will protect you, it is the name of COMSTOCK & CO.; that name must be always on the wrapper, or you are cheated. Do not forget it. Take this direction with you, and test by that, or never buy; for it is impossible for any other to be true or genuine. SOLONON HAYS.

It is also in extensive use for Clearing the Voice of Vocalists and Public Speakers. Its efficacy is fully established for removing the above complaints. Brown, Boston." Also the Directions are signed. For genuine observe the stamp, and receive no other Price 19 cts for 4 oz. The great increase of sales this season is sufficient to satisfy the whole community of its superiority. As an evidence read Certificate:—

I hereby certify that in the month of October, 1839, I manufactured from a medicated decoction furnished by Wm. Brown, Druggist, 481 Washington Street, Boston, 324 lbs of his Compound Boneset Candy. Same month this year, 1840, I manufactured for him 2260½ lbs, showing an increase to satisfy all that the article is truly all the go. Six years [illegible] in that month I made but 1[illegible] lbs. CONSUMPTION

DR. ALLEN'S BALSAM of Hoarehound, Liverwort, and Pleurisy Root, FOR CONSUMPTION AND LIVER COMPLAINT, Colds, Coughs, Spitting of Blood, Catarrh, Asthma, Difficulty of Breathing, Pain in the Side, Palpitation of the Heart, Oppression and Soreness of the Chest, Pleurisy, Hectic Fever, Night Sweats, Difficult and Profuse Expectoration, and all affections of the Chest, Lungs and Liver.

The Hoarhound, Liverwort, and Pleurisy Root have for centuries been celebrated in the cure of diseases of the Lungs and Liver.

Dr. B. D. Allen, after a series of experiments, has been able to extract from these medical herbs a balsam, which exerts a most wonderful effect in curing Consumption and Liver Complaint, and all other diseases of the Lungs and Chest. So great has become the reputation of Dr. Allen's Balsam, that it is now used in the New York, Philadelphia and Baltimore Hospitals, and in the private practice of our most eminent medical men.

For children labouring under Inflammation of the Lungs, Colds, Coughs, Croup, Quinsy, and Sore Throat this Balsam is of great importance. The number of deaths among children from these diseases is truly alarming. If parents wish to save the lives of their children, and themselves much trouble, anxiety, and expense, let them procure Dr. B. D. Allen's Balsam; and whenever a child has taken cold, has any fever, cough, or hoarseness, give a teaspoonful of this medicine, and repeat it if necessary; even one teaspoonful will often effect an entire cure. During the winter of 1839, rising of one thousand families employed this remedy in the city of New York. The consequence was, that the number of deaths among children was reduced to less than one half the usual number, as may be seen by the city inspector's report of deaths.

In order to give the reader some idea of the efficacy of this Balsam, and how extensively it is used, we here introduce the monthly report of the cures it performed in the month of May, 1839, as furnished us by the agent, and published in the N. York Sun

"Monthly Report of the cures performed by Dr. B. D. Allen's Balsam of Hoarhound, Liverwort, and Pleurisy Root during the month of May. It has cured and completed the cure of Consumption in	1121	cases.

Liver Complaint	102	"
Dyspepsia	196	"
Asthma	91	"

"The number of Colds and Coughs cured by this medicine are too numerous to report"

☞ CAUTION.—Purchase none unless it has Certificate of "Copyright" on wrapper and label and the written signature of B. D. ALLEN, M.

The following certificates show the high estimation in which Dr. Allen's Balsam is held.

OPINIONS OF THE MEDICAL FACULTY.

At a meeting of the Medical Society of Washington County, the following Resolution was unanimously passed:

Resolved, That from a knowledge of the composition of Dr. Allen's Balsam of Hoarhound, Liverwort and Pleurisy Root, and the most astonishing effects we have seen it have upon our patients, it is our decided and unanimous opinion that it will cure Consumption and Liver complaint, and we do strongly recommend it to the faculty and the public generally.

Dr. B. D. ALLEN, Dear Sir—For a year past I have been in the habit of prescribing your Balsam of Hoarhound, Liverwort, and Pleurisy Root to my patients in private practice; I have also used it in the Hospital. I find it a remedy of great efficacy in affections of the Lungs and Liver. In cases of Consumption, Cough, Asthma, and Bronchitis, I have found it very efficacious, and I believe it is prescribed very generally by the profession.

I have the honor to be, yours, &c.

Dr. D. D. ALLEN, Dear Sir. I am most happy to inform you that your Balsam of Hoarhound, Liverwort, and Pleurisy Root, has cured me of the Liver complaint; a disease under which I had labored upwards of six years. I have recommended it to several of my friends when afflicted with the same malady, and in every instance has it been successful. Hoping that God may spare your life for usefulness. I am respectfully yours.

HAIR! HAIR!

THE BEAUTIFUL HEAD OF HAIR is the grandest ornament belonging to the human frame. How strangely fashion of it changes the order of things, and so naturally brings on the appearance of old age, which causes many to recoil at being seen, and sometimes even shun society to avoid the taunts and sneers of their acquaintance; the remainder of their lives is consequently spent in misery, which is then not even the loss of property, tells the generous thinking youth with that heavy sinking gloom, as does the loss of his hair. To obviate these unpleasant circumstances, Oldridge's BALM OF COLUMBIA stops the hair from falling off on the first application, and a few bottles restores it again. It likewise produces eyebrows and whiskers; prevents the hair from turning gray, makes it curl beautifully, and frees it from scurf. Numerous certificates of the first respectability in proof of the virtues of Oldridge's Balm are shown by the proprietors.

Read the following:

ROBERT WHARTON, Esq. late Mayor of Philadelphia, has certified, as may be seen below, to the high character of the following gentlemen:

The undersigned do hereby certify that we have used the Balm of Columbia discovered by J. Oldridge, and have found it highly serviceable not only as a preventative against the falling off of hair, but also a certain restorative.

WM. THATCHER, Sen.
Methodist Minister of St. George charge, No. 86 North Fifth st.
JOHN P. INGLIS, 331 Arch st.
JOHN D. THOMAS, M. D., 163 Race st
JOHN S. FUREY, 101 Spruce st.
HUGH McCURDY, 96 South 4th st.
JOHN GARD, Jun., 123 Arch st.

It will certainly raise its virtues in the estimation of the public, when it is known that three of the above signers are more than 50 years of age, and the others not less than 30.

[From the Mayor.]

COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA, City of Philadelphia.

I, ROBERT WHARTON, Mayor of said city of Philadelphia, do hereby certify that I am well acquainted with Messrs. J. P. Inglis, John S. Furey, and Hugh McCurdy, whose names are signed to the above certificate, that they are gentlemen of character and respectability, and as such full credit should be given to the said certificate.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand, and caused the seal of the city to be affixed, this sixth [L. S.] day of December, &c.

THE HAIR! THE HAIR!!

No one can be ignorant of the superiority of the Genuine Buffalo Oil, over other preparations, than that a number of Druggists are endeavoring to imitate it and foisting their miserable imitations on the public for genuine. Read advertisement. Beware of Pedlars.

☞ Genuine Buffalo Oil is fast taking place of all other articles to promote the growth, soften and beautify the hair; its use gives it a softness that no other article does, and causes it to curl beautifully; by free use it will darken and give the hair a satin gloss, it is highly perfumed and gives perfect satisfaction to all who have given it a trial. You will observe the signature of the proprietor "William Brown," also "Buffalo Oil," imprinted on the bottle. In consequence of a counterfeit which has recently appeared and is now for sale, I have been persuaded to obtain a new label engraved on copper, for which I have secured a copy-right, entered according to an act of Congress in the Clerk Office of the District Court of Massachusetts. Any infringement will be dealt with according to law. For sale by
